FOREWORD

Co-Editors' Message

As the school year passes, we pause to catch one final glimpse of the things that we have accomplished. Our friends, teachers, classmates have all played a part in this.

We have tried to preserve memories through words and pictures that we hope will serve to bring enjoyment now in the future.

As co-editors, we would like to express our deepest appreciation to the members of the yearbook staff, administration, faculty, and student body for their splendid co-operation with us in helping to publish the 1960 edition of the "Bulldog."

In years to come, may you look at this book and think of a job done through honest efforts and hard work.

Co-Editors: Morese Woodrum

TO OUR BELOVED PARENTS, AND DEVOTED SENIOR SPONSORS

To our Beloved Parents and our Devoted Senior Sponsors, we the class of 1960 wish to dedicate this year's edition of the "Bulldog" to you.

Your patient understanding and encouraging words have been a necessity during our school life. We are grateful for this, for only you knew that our past school phase of study would create the future for us.

As we strive to reach more rewarding goals that lie ahead we will always remember the one you have just helped us to reach.

In this small, but sincere way we cheerfully dedicate this book.

CLASS HISTORY

It was a bright, sunny, autumn day in September, 1954, when our rocket ship, coming from outer space, landed at, what we now know as, Foster High.

One hundred-thirty seven seekers of knowledge set foot on the Luther H. Foster soil. This was only the starting point of a wonderful school year in a land of great wisdom, and perfect understanding which offered a variety of phases of knowledge.

In the years that followed, 56 of our seekers of knowledge were unable to continue their climb up the ladder.

Of course, we had a few celebrities along the way. In the Eighth grade, we were fortunate enough to have Gloria Bridgeforth crowned as Miss Bronze America of 1955-56. In 1956-57, Kathleen Neal was runner-up to Miss Foster. In our Junior year, Thelma Pitts was crowned Miss Homecoming of 1958-59.

Our Junior-Senior Prom was the biggest event of our Junior year. The theme was "Satellite Ball," based on outerspace. It was a knock-out!

Hurrah! Hurrah! The year we've all been waiting for, our Senior year. We strive with this motto, "We have crossed the bay, the ocean lies before us." To guide us through this year, our officers are: President, Jesse Randle; Vice President, Ernest King; Secretary, Kathleen Neal; Assistant Secretary, Lillie Ford; Treasurer, Gloria Collier; Chaplain, Geraldine Wilson; Parliamentarian, Lawrence Fowlkes; Sergeants-at-arms, Willie Jones and John Jefferson.

We have worked patiently and waited for this day. We have worked together and played together, and now we have reached, not the end, as we had supposed, but the beginning; yes, the beginning of a new life and a new responsibility. Though it makes us sad to leave the old life that we have loved so well, we enter the new one gladly. The responsibility is a heavy one but we accept it cheerfully. We know what we must do; we must keep moving forward. It would not be enough if we merely kept our civilization on the plane to which it has been lifted by those who have gone before us. We must lift it higher, and this we intend to do!

We make no rash promises as to what we will do in the future, but this we do promise: "What we can do, we will do." We will give you no cause to be ashamed of us, and we will try to make the world better having lived and worked in it.

We ask for your best wishes and God's guidance as we each go our separate ways.

THE PRINCIPAL SPEAKS . . .

It has been a real pleasure to again be the administrative head of this school.

I wish to express my appreciation to the faculty, Board of Education, students, custodians, parents, and other persons of the county for their excellent co-operation in making this a pleasant and successful school year.

The time for your graduation is at hand. May I, as representative of the entire school, extend congratulations and highest hopes for success in the times that lie ahead.

We charge you to unfaltering loyalty, to truth, honesty, justice, and godliness.

"The night is far spent, the day is at hand: Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness and let us put on the armour of light."

CLASS POEM

The time has come for us to depart,
To us it is the saddest thing at heart.

Now that we have learned to use our
tools,

We can put in to practice those
Golden Rules.

Since we have tried very dearly,
We hope to do all things sincerely.

For us the foundation has been laid;

Our dreams, hopes and goals it will aid.

We think how swiftly the moments
passed,

And how we have toiled from class
to class,

But the time has come; we know we must go.

Our destiny, we do not know.

We have always striven to do our best,

Never were we satisfied with anything less.

But now we must leave dear old
Foster High.

We have gained much knowledge; now
we must apply.

We know that we have not yet begun,
The enormous task that is undone;

But still we will continue with smiles
To travel the future miles.

So parents, teacher, students, and all

You have uplifted us; we don't plan
to fall.

We are now on our own; we have come
thus far.

Our school's reputation, we will not mar.

CLASS SONG

- I. The year of 1960
Is slowly passing by
We hate to leave you Foster Dear
But we must say good-bye.

Chorus

We never will forget you and
For us the things you've done
We hope your dreams of us come true
In future years to come.

- II. The struggle was not easily won
The battle hard at times
Life's goal for us has just begun
The future's now to come.

Chorus

We never will forget you and
For us the things you've done
We hope your dreams of us come true
In future years to come.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF SENIOR CLASS OF 1960

We, the Senior Class of 1960, having reached our goal after a long struggle, wish to make a few last bequests to some of the people who made it possible.

First. To our parents, who gave never failing advice, love, and guidance, we leave our sincerest appreciation.

Second. To our beloved principal and faculty members, we leave our thankfulness for your patience in dealing with us.

Third. We give, devise, and bequeath unto our followers, the Juniors, our conscientious efforts and our front seats in the auditorium.

Fourth. To the Sophomores, we bequeath our love, thoughtfulness, and consideration for your fellowman.

Sixth. To the Eighth Graders, we bequeath our Senior dignity with the ability to make high school days a success.

Viola Jones wills her ability to study to her brother, Charlie Jones.

Vivian Washington wills her ability to get along with others to her cousin; Christine Woodson.

CLASS PROPHECY

We have just arrived in Space, having been required by Mandate of the Class of 1960 to forecast the future of these ambitious seniors.

Gloria Collier, who refused to marry Earl Bland, is now happily married to James Robinson. Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson are living on "Robot Street" next to Mars most prominent "Spirit-Makers," James P. Oliver and Vivian Washington now Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Oliver.

Ella Booth is now weighing 110 pounds, and she is modeling at Phyllis Hill and Clara Rowe's Fashion Salon. John Jefferson, Terry Lewis, Clarence Jefferson, and Lawrence Fowlkes are the main fashion buyers.

Jean Bagley and Paul Anderson have invented a "Lie Detector" machine. It is one of the greatest machines that has ever been invented.

Ruby Shelton is the head voice instructor at "A. and T. College." Miss Shelton's most "Tongue-Tied" students are Carl Hanks, Jesse Randle, and Wardell Smith.

The young "Southerner," Leon Carter, is now head of Carter's Mental Institution in Cartersville. His head custodians are Morris Fitzgerald, Earnest Williams, and James Marshall.

Richard Florance is now a star football player at a college in North Carolina, and recently joined in wedlock with Katie Willis.

Jeanne Fowlkes, Inell Robertson, and Alma Lewis have their college degrees and are top business ladies.

Morese Woodrum, now Rev. M. R. Woodrum, is doing great work at Sinner's Baptist Church in Deviltown, Minnesota, with his eleven children and his missionary wife, Gloria Wells.

Mary Davis, Pauline Green, and Emma Hawkes are running a day nursery in downtown Swampville; their regular customers are Rosa Peace, Lillian Eppes, and Caesar Love.

James Jackson, Robert Keeton, Milton Bush, and William Jones are the big headlines at the Waldorf in "No Man's Land." As you know, they are famous dancers.

Kathleen Neal, Mary Jennings, Marie Bridgeforth, Beatrice Butcher, and Mamie Johnson are successful models in Paris.

Professor Ernest King, along with his faculty members, Rebecca Coleman, Viola Jones, Thelma Pitts, Vernard Wynn, James Johnson, Hugo Stokes, and Hazel Branch are having great success at U.C.L.A. in California.

John Hawkes, James Branch, Willie Banks, Carnell Barrow, and Earl Johnson are now famous baseball players with the "All Time Losers" team. Clifton Evans and James Dyson are the managers. Their most avid fans are their wives--Audrey King Hawkes, Lena Johnson Branch, Fannie Fitzgerald Banks, Marjorie Neal Barrow, and Antionette Scott Johnson.

Geraldine Wilson, now governor of California, is taking psychiatric treatments from Dr. Willie Jones. Dr. Jones' most capable receptionist is Marian Eppes, and his efficient nurse is Gladys Coleman.

Carl Hanks and Edward Rather are professional wrestlers. You can watch them on Channel WRUF at quarter to Twenty-One Century time.

Jean Hobbs, our only maid, is living in London. Her only companions are our head valets, Walter Hubbard and Mance Bagley.

For ourselves, we are millionaires living on the planet Jupiter and are inviting our fellow classmates to visit us on 0077 Moonlight Strip, Walkmore Avenue.

The class looks forward to its reunion in 1965.

Yours truly,
Ann Bland
Mary Eppes
Rosa Stokes
James Clark
Lillie Ford
Lincoln Tucker
